

familiar with the difficulty that we had there, and the other reference here is relative to revenue bonds which was not a part of the original...well, it's part of the original bill but it's not a part of the original study, nor do I believe the constitutional amendment gives them the authority in the revenue bond area. So it remains with the Legislature and the institutions both needing to approve.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: But there will be a clarifying amendment on Select File, is what you're saying.

SENATOR WARNER: Working on an amendment on...for the general approval and process for capital construction.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Senator Warner, do you wish to close on the amendment? No closing. The question before the body is the adoption of the Warner amendment to LB 683. All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the adoption of Senator Warner's amendment.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The Warner amendment is adopted. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, Senators Bohlke and Warner would move to amend with AM3273. (AM3273 appears on pages 791-92 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Bohlke.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Madam President and members, a number of you may recall recently we had confirmations presented to you from the Education Committee for those people who serve on the Nebraska Safety Center Advisory Council. That council has a membership of 22 individuals. What this would do would be to shift or move that responsibility to the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska. The Board of Regents currently approves the budget, and what this does is simply not raise that to the level of needing to do a confirmation hearing, and having those people travel to the Legislature and the Education Committee go through that process. It's, as I say, there are 22 members, and it seems more appropriate for the scope of their
